Memories Inspire Theme

Every student is told that their years in high school are the years that they will be telling all their friends, family, and future children about, but what they aren't told is that high school is one of hardest parts of a teenager's life. They go through major changes and challenges. From being a freshmen and not knowing where their classes are at, to being seniors crying at their graduation ceremony; high school goes by quickly.

High school is four years of learning, growing up, and living in an instant. This is what Co-Editors Cynthia Martinez and Jessica McLean expressed about life and their experience throughout high school.

"We chose our theme to be [in]st[an]t, which is meant to be read as 'In an Instant', because everything we do, every choice we make, and every memory that we create, happens in an instant. We don't cherish anything until the only way we remember it is as a memory," senior Cynthia Martinez said.

"Before you get to high school everyone always tells you that it flies by but you never believe them. You are a freshmen and before you know it it's graduation day and you are saying goodbye to your favorite teachers and friends. High school goes way faster than you could ever imagine and everything happens in an instant," junior Jessica McLean said.

As a yearbook staff, they want to capture every important moment of the school year. They attend every sporting event, awards night, club meeting; you name it. Memories made here in the halls of Kankakee Valley High School may seem unimportant to students, but when looking back at the memories students created here, they will miss this school.

Dance your feet off!

Making Memories Last a Lifetime

The band members earned their way into the homecoming dance this year. The dance was moved to the weekend before the Friday football game. Marching band never had the chance to attend the homecoming dance because the weekend of the dance was when they had their ISSMA competition. For many years, Marching band had to make their own separate dance, making them seem like they were separate from their other students at KV. This didn't discourage the members, as they would make their own dance with the help of their band leader.

Although the dance was moved, Marching band still wanted to keep the tradition of having their own separate dance.

Mariah Salyers, a flute player says,

"I like having a separate band dance. We create our own theme and only have fun with people we know."

Although for the first time in KV history the dance was before spirit week, students could still enjoy the dance without knowing who would be Homecoming queen and king. Students still made the best of it and participated enthusiastically in spirit week.

Five Days to Show Spirit!

May the Odds Be Ever in Your Favor

For many years, the homecoming dance would come after homecoming week and the football game, but for the first time ever, homecoming dance was held first, then homecoming week followed it. Juniors Sierra Sears gave her opinion on the situation:

"To be honest, having the dance before having our spirit week made everything feel backwards. Having spirit week before the dance gets us pumped up and ready for the dance, but it just didn't feel like that this year," Sears said.

Although everything was out of order, students still enjoyed the spirit week and some participated in the dress day's theme, along with the staff and teachers.

Student council has been in charge of choosing the theme for homecoming week, which was "The Hunger Games" to be the center of the theme for this homecoming week.

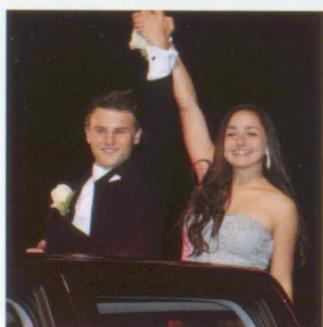

"The theme this year seemed hard to pull off, but seeing all teachers and students dressing up like they would in the movie looked cool," said senior Andrew Carter.

Moments On the Field

The Barrel: Welcome Home

The Kankakee Valley Cougars and the Rensselaer Bombers have been major rivals for many years. One of the biggest accomplishments this season for the Cougar team was beating the Bombers and bringing the barrel back to the Kankakee Valley trophy case.

"To be honest, when the Bombers won the state championship last year, not very many people expected a winning result, but when the final countdown came, we won. Them being our biggest rival, we ran around the parking lot screaming 'We won!'" said junior Katelyn Eger. They trained long and hard for their win and it paid off in the long run. The battle ended up being one of the most attended games of the entire season. At the end of the season, some of the varsity players won conference awards. Juniors Aron Ceglarek and Darin Kapella won 1st team while seniors; James Elliott and Darrick Webster received 2nd team, and David Williams earned an honorable mention.

Getting Everyone Involved

Mr. Martin Steps Up Activities

Trying to get the community more involved, Mr. Jeff Martin decided to have fun activities take place during halftime of the junior versus senior game. From an inflatable obstacle course to a football toss, the entertainment never stopped. There was even a field goal kicking competition that anyone could enter for a dollar and attempt to kick a football through the uprights. The idea was successful because there was a large turnout in the end and the program raised money. The junior class even had a student cheer section that consisted of all grade levels. Through all of the fun, the freshmen and seniors came out on top; both won their games against the sophomores and juniors, respectively.

LEFT: Sophomore Sarah Starr runs the ball towards the other end of the field after a hand off from fellow teammate RaeAnna Carter. The sophomores fell just short of the win in the game against the freshmen with a score of 38 to 28.

FAR LEFT: Junior quarterback Jessica Vasquez runs around the right side of the defensive line. "It was pretty difficult for us to go against the seniors, having only two weeks to prepare. We put our all out on the field and next year should be even better," said Vasquez.

BOTTOM: The sophomore team huddles up before the game to encourage each other. The team ran out onto the field to a mixture of different popular songs.

Business Professionals of America is an interactive club associated with the business classes. They hold many competitions and have fundraisers like selling pies and getting students and staff involved for their annual three-on-three basketball tourney. BPA was very privileged to participate in Regionals and won. State will be the next step. A participant in the district competition, Shawn Stephenson, senior said, "I had a lot of fun while remaining serious. It was a great day. I met a lot of new people and got to hang out with some of my friends, but the best part was taking home first place." Emily Poe, senior, also go to participate in the district competition and enjoys BPA too. She said, "I enjoy the competition. Being as professional as I can be and competing with videos I create, BPA is really an eye-opening experience."

BPA is more than just competitions that prepare students for their futures. Tiffany Hansel, senior, said, "I wanted to further my attention in journalism. I had taken yearbook and newspaper, and I needed more experience on camera, and not just on paper. This class has really helped me improve my skills." Autumn Fagenbaum, also a senior, loves to be in BPA. She said, "One of my favorite things about BPA is getting the chance to experience what the real world is like, and getting to work as a team to accomplish awesome projects." BPA is more than just a club and will potentially help students in their future. Charles Fase, sophomore, concludes, "I enjoyed meeting new people. One of the greatest parts about BPA is when we get to use our social, team, and problem solving skills."

High School Musical

Getcha Head in the Game

New, classes, new school year, and new plays! Once school started, theater arts began holding auditions for people who wanted to be part of the fall play. This year, Mrs. Steiner chose High School Musical. "I choose High School Musical, because some of the senior veterans and I were looking for something different from what we have done and that would have a large cast. This is a show they suggested, something they all knew well and loved watching as kids. So I embraced what they wanted and put on this high energy musical that was a lot of fun to do" Mrs. Steiner said when asked why she chose High School Musical as the fall play.

Once people auditioned they started to find out who had gotten which roles. Sophomore, Gerrit Ooms, said "When I found out I had gotten the role, I was excited since I didn't want too big of a role. The initial few weeks were easy as we mostly learned our parts and where we were supposed to be. Overall lines took three weeks. It wasn't horribly stressful but it took a long time, but it was all great. I enjoyed being part of the play, and would audition to be in another play." It took lots of practicing and hard work, but at the end of the day the play was a success and a lot of people enjoyed it!

Just Having Fun

This year the boys tennis had a very good season. Even if they were tired, they would practice every day because practice makes perfect. They would practice every day to ensure that they were fully prepared to play against other schools.

Even though they did play against other schools, the whole point of their team was not just to win and be competitive; the purpose was to also have fun and enjoy the game while playing and practicing. "I have played tennis for two years and the best thing about playing is the loose environment. Our teams were always close, we felt like a family and it made playing tennis a very enjoyable time," said senior Austin Abbring. So, not only did they have fun while winning, the teammates also came to identify themselves as part of a family and treat each other that way.

"We all did amazing this season and we encouraged each other to get better. My game as a tennis player improved greatly and I became a much more offensive hitter rather than a defensive player," said senior Trevor Wiesemann.

Although they probably won't play tennis forever, during high school they got the opportunity to play in a sport and have fun.

Student Leaders

Serving the Community

Throughout the year, Council of Student Leaders does a lot to help out far and near in the community while setting high goals for themselves and learning to be leaders. One of those goals includes raising money for Riley's Childrens Hospital. Setting the goal at $2,000, the students put together a night full of fun called "Riley's Night" on February 27. During Riley's Night, those who attended were met with games, music, and much more all put together by the students of the Council. Thanks to local businesses who donated money for the event, and everyone who attended the night, every ounce of money that was collected and donated went to Riley's Childrens Hospital.

The Council of Student Leaders took on a lot of service projects such as collecting stuffed animals during Homecoming week for the first responders to give to children; the annual food drive and donut breakfast at the end of the first semester; and collecting non-perishable toiletry items to donate to those in need.

Council of Student Leaders also made a trip out to Lake Shore Paws in Valparaiso to volunteer at the animal shelter. The Council gathered dog toys to donate to the precious dogs.

"Student Council is made up of the nicest people you'll ever meet. Yes, they can be annoying at times, but we are like one big family, and I wouldn't trade it for the world," expressed sophomore Hannah Wiesemann.

The Council of Student Leaders puts together countless other selfless fundraisers and service projects for the community yearly to help those in need and to help the less fortunate.

Winning Sectionals

One of the biggest accomplishments of the season for the players was winning sectionals for the first time in eleven years. Though in the beginning it was tough for the girls, they still managed to give it their all.

"We started off the season on a rough start with a lot of position switching and tough losses but ended the season on a strong note with a sectional win." said junior Madison Rowen.

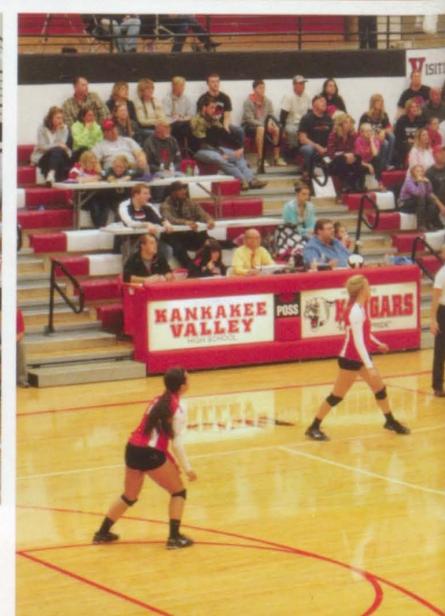

As the girls' season came to an end, they had to deal with some difficult news. One of the team's coaches, Ms. Baysinger, left.

"I think the coaching staff has changed because a lot of player looked up to her. She has been there since I was a freshmen, and I'm sure many people are going to miss her. It won't be the same without her coaching!" exclaimed junior Emily Dahm.

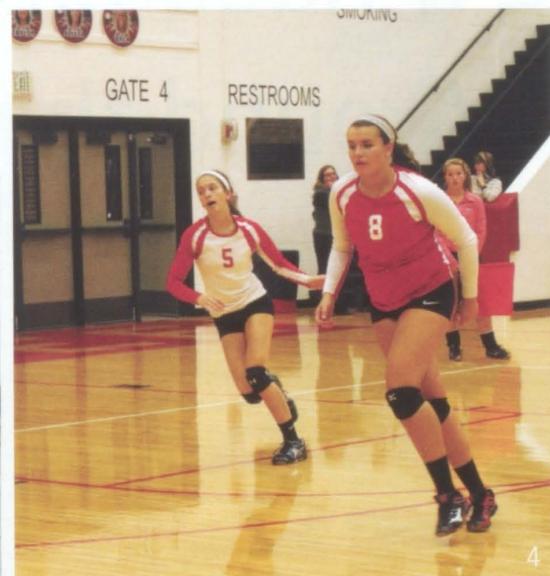

Even though the team had these obstacles they still came out on top of their season.

"Near the end of the season, we started experiencing more loses and tough games and some people stopped believing us so we knew that we would have to work extra hard if we wanted to pull it off. We definitely shaped up and got KV volleyball our first sectional win in eleven years, so it was very exciting for us and our whole program," said junior Britney Hoffman.

Making a Racquet Around the World

One Swing at a Time

Table Tennis is one of the most popular racquet sports in the world, and it's popular here too. Since table tennis is still a fairly new club, the amount of members wanting to join are through the roof. The two co-founders, seniors Jared Stemper and Austin Abbring, of table tennis had to make some serious cuts with over 60 students wanting to join in on the fun. With the co-founders hard work and the help from their advisor, Mr. Timothy Stewert, they were able to procure seven tables for their club.

"I have always played table tennis with my friends, and I know it is a very social game. So, I thought it would be a great addition to KV's other clubs," Stemper said.

Table Tennis isn't the only club doing fun things; the Foreign Language Club had student teacher, Mrs. Ozana Paraga, come in and talk to the club about her heritage and her life growing up as Croatian in Chicago. Foreign Language Club dedicated a whole month to learning about Croatia and eating some of their traditional foods.

The next month, the members dedicated their time to France. Senior Casey Hennings did a presentation about what her summer in France was like; Casey Hennings and junior Elizabeth Evans taught the members a traditional French dance; and to tie off the semester, decorated the Foreign Language hallway for Christmas. After asking junior, Lorraine Howard why she joined the club, she said, "I joined Foreign Language Club because I've always had an interest in learning about different cultures. Everyone in the club is so nice and we always have fun together."

When you join a club, a sport, an after school activity, or an academic class; if you enjoy it, you decide to do it every year. You have a blast and start to grow together as a family, but it doesn't last forever. Senior year becomes the hardest year, because you have to start saying goodbye to everyone. For senior Brooke Meadows, being in band was incredible, and teaching junior Emily Pearson to be a band major was great too. "Being a drum major has been a dream of mine for years, and I loved every minute of marching band. I can't wait to see how Emily leads the band next year, she's going to do great!" Emily Pearson felt the same way, "Being a band major was incredible! It was amazing to stand in front of the band and have a chance to lead. I'm already excited for next season."

Even though it's sad, you don't forget about all the accomplishments you made throughout your time in band. Kankakee Valley marching band/color guard had a successful year. They were privileged to place gold at ISSMA and they received many other awards on their performance.

Although it's sad saying goodbye for seniors, they also welcome new freshmen to become part of the family. "I feel like marching band is a great way to make new friends and find common hobbies. I like that I am able to express myself through music and being able to always have fun!" said freshmen, Hunter Deyoung when asked how he felt about being part of band. All of the band/guard members are sad to have all of the seniors leaving, but on the other hand they are ready to take on the responsibility and guide the incoming freshman to welcome them into the family, just like the seniors did with them.

Farming's Future

FFA worked together and taught each other to make a business out of cattle and crops. "FFA is an amazing experience that teaches me about leadership and responsibility. I love being able to participate in all of the activities and getting to meet other people. Go FFA!" said sophomore Katlyn Kohlhagen. FFA helps to create a bigger and better Future Farmers of America.

FFA helps to keep our highway clean and safe through the adopt-a-highway program. Road 10 is sparkling, due to our future farmers, along with the help of Environmental Club.

Kankakee Valley is one of the few schools in the area that still allows students to drive farm tractors from home to school.

"I enjoyed having the chance to go to the National Convention in Louisville, Kentucky and being able to meet people from all over the country, and spending time with some of the best friends I have on the way down there and back home," said junior Natalie Wagner.

Reaching accomplishments

Cross Country had a very accomplished season, which included sophomore Trevor Conley going to semi state: "I made all regional and made it to semi state and it was a great experience for me this year,"

Senior Isaac Tillema ran his fastest time at New Prairie. Not only did the team beat their personal records, but they took those times and hard work all the way to sectionals. There, not only did they enjoy themselves, but 6 made top 20.

For the first time, Cross country runner, sophomore Crystal Benitez, was honored with the MVP award. After asking Crystal how she felt about receiving this award, she states: "I worked hard all season and it felt very nice to win MVP, even though I was not able to run regional."

All together the team accomplished much and had fun doing it! "This season was an amazing season with more kids running than ever before. The team is more like a family, and this family accomplished more than ever expected," sophomore cross country runner Gavin Tillema says.

With a great seasonal outcome, the cross country runners will try their best to make next season even better. Running day and night cross country runners work their hardest while enjoying the sport and sharing their time with cross country coach Tim Adams.

Stay Fresh

Being a freshman in high school is one of the scariest parts of a teenager's life. Underclassmen feel intimidated by the upperclassmen, and they don't know their way around the school. To help freshmen learn about the school and get used to high school, KV has the freshmen mentors club to help the "newbies."

Freshmen mentors take their responsibilities seriously and become a mentor to see freshman be successful their first year. They were chosen and interviewed by the principal and vice principals.

Freshmen mentors went to leadership conferences and learned how to be a better mentor; this training allows them to help their freshmen make a switch from middle school to high school.

On August 11, two days before school began, they held their annual "Kougar Kickoff" for the incoming freshman. At this event, they were given their school schedule, met their mentors and freshmen focus teacher.

"Getting to know my freshmen... was the best part of the event," said junior Madison Rowen. "I can't wait for next year!"

Documenting KV Happenings

Current events, local stories, and keeping up-to-date with all the sports and events going on in the school and the community is what Newspaper is all about.

Since newspaper is a journalism class and there were only six people in the club, Newspaper worked overtime to meet their deadlines and have their stories printed by their printing company in a timely manner.

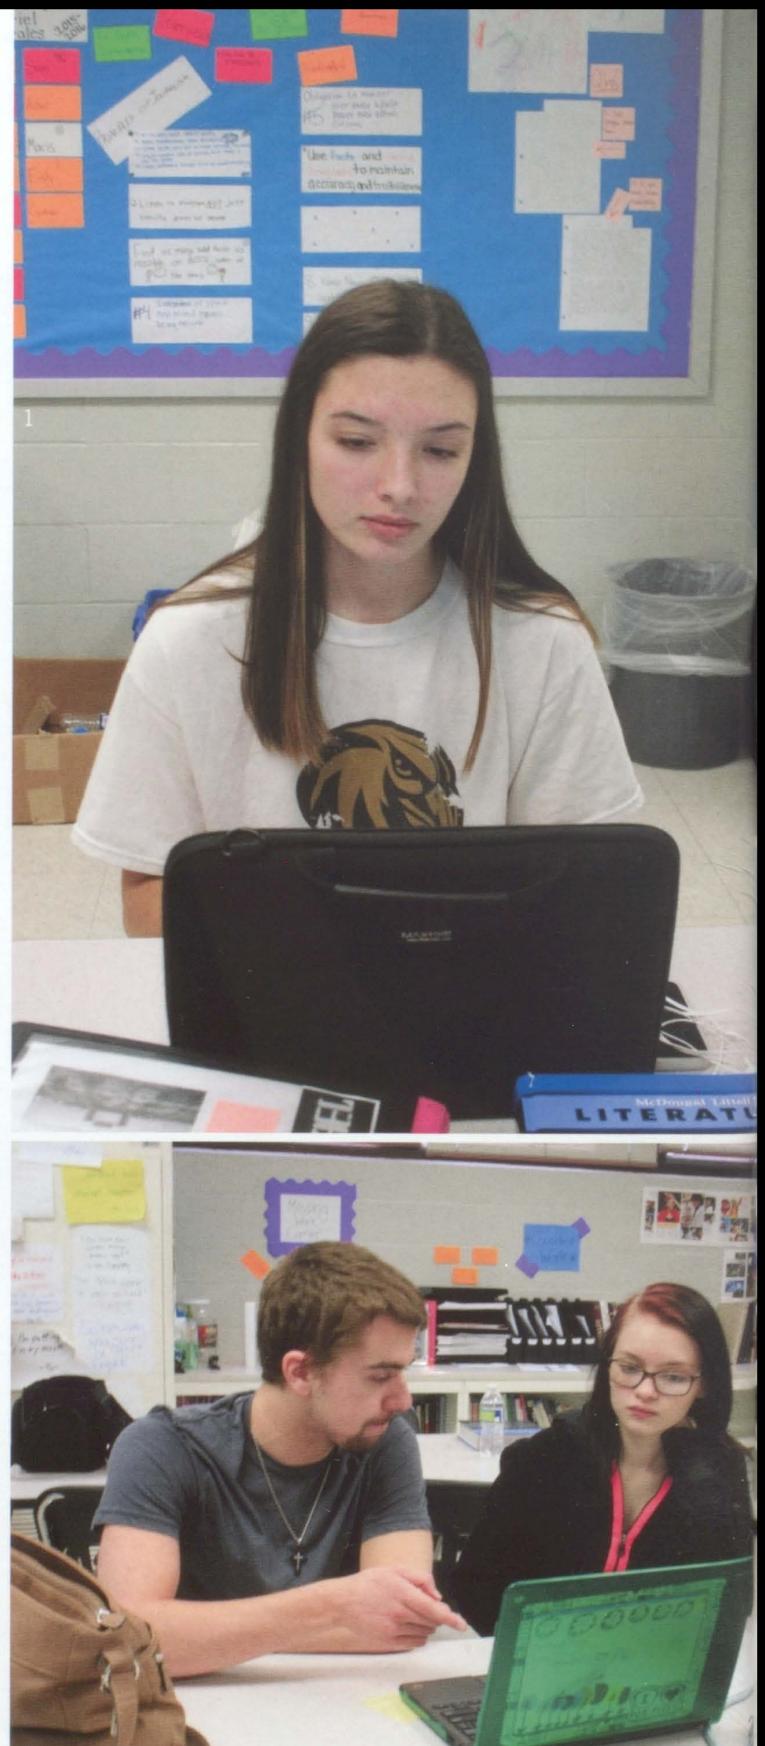

When writing and figuring out attention grabbers and headlines, it's not always easy. "It's truly hard trying to write without your full opinion or being bias[ed] because of the research and facts," said junior Aries Morales.

As the year goes by, the Newspaper staff learn more and more about what it takes to be a good writer and time-intensive writing and editing process. Newspaper is about meeting new people and interviewing different social groups and people. Learning to write about different aspects of the community is a challenge.

Along with becoming a better writer, students develop reporting skills by identifying and knowing the problem. This is taught by gathering all the materials and questions needed to have the full covered story.

Newspaper is really a combination of three skills: reading, writing, and researching. Developing articles from interviews, surveys, and polls, Newspaper has got the news for you. Whether it's a story about sports or arts, or even band or dance, it all comes together when you are in newspaper as students utilize correct techniques, learn the history of journalism, and analyze good examples of journalism.

"Taking a spin in the new direction this year for newspaper, it was definitely a great way to build a team and write a paper. Especially when there is only five others all coming together to make the school newspaper," commented senior Gavin Coppage.

8. Sweet Tunes! Aries Morales, 11, is listening to music while she writes an article. Hard work is the only kind of work done in newspaper. "I learned how to talk to people and set up interviews, talk to officials. Its helped in high school because it gave me confidence and helped my self esteem. I like feeling like I'm a part of something for our school... that I help let others know what's going on. I feel like my voice is heard." Photo by: R. Deulley

hope to pursue it
later for a career, and I'm glad I got to do it in high

Soccer Statistics

It was a hard fight for the boys soccer team at first, but their hard work paid off in the end. Senior night was a huge success with a 3-0 win against the Lowell Devils. "It was crazy to think it would be my last game at Kankakee Valley High School. I cannot believe how fast time goes by, and it feels like just yesterday I was a Freshman. It was a lot of fun playing my last game, and playing with the people that I grew up with," Senior Chad Hill said. Senior night was definitely a night that will be remembered especially by the seniors. All of KV will truly miss everyone. Most of the freshman say they will be doing soccer again to be able to experience all of the fun and hard work. Then in the future they will be able to enjoy and tell stories of their own personal senior night. The whole team learned from their mistakes, and hope they can go to regionals again. It was such a huge success and they will surely be ready next year. The soccer teams went out on a high note; they hope to come out even stronger in the future.

Lady Cougars Get New Coach

For a season that started out pretty rocky, the Lady Cougars overcame it more easily than they expected.

"Before the season started we were very nervous because we did not have a coach right away. Once we got a coach, we were really optimistic about our season. Unfortunately it did not start the way we had hoped. We started off not playing the way we should and not working well together. Our conference record was not the best but we went to sectionals hopeful. Even though we had a lot of injuries in the weeks, leading up to sectionals we remained positive. Every year KV and Crown Point would always face off for the sectional title. Finally this year we won for the first time since 2009," Senior Jessica Young said.

"It was such an amazing feeling. Then onto regionals; we knew it was going to be hard. We played Lake Central first round at regionals and beat them 3-0 in overtime: best feeling in the world. To go from a team struggling to work together to making history and defying the odds is so rewarding. Next, we played Munster, who we lost to in penalty kicks during regular season. We again lost 1-0 in overtime but we fought really hard. As the season went on we all worked really hard and we all really miss it. We all are really happy that us seniors went out with a bang," she continued. This shows that even with getting a new coach and having to regroup to work as a team the Lady Cougars pulled through. "It was a pretty awesome feeling to win sectionals." junior Julianna Phelps said. The Lady Cougars won sectionals 6-2. What a win! The girls worked hard to get as far as they got, however, they were not so lucky at regionals. Even so, they were still very proud of the work they did over the summer to get where they got.

Riley's Night

It's All About the Kids

Saturday, February 27th, Student Council put together a night to raise money for Riley Children's Hospital. The night included a black light dance, inflatables, ping-pong, and video games. The night turned out to be a huge success, and it raised over a thousand dollars through donations from local businesses and students.

After asking Senior Alexandra Brizek how she thought the night went, she said: "Riley's Night went really well! People had fun and helped a great charity at the same time! Our students, faculty, and local businesses raised $2,000 to send to Riley's Hospital for Children! This means we raised more than one dollar for every student and makes KVHS a Miracle School!"

Alexandra also went on to say, "Putting Riley's Night together was incredibly stressful at times, but I am so glad it turned out as well as it did! Everyone had a great time while raising money for a great cause! Our community really came together."

The success of the night proved that the school and community can come together to help a good cause. Student Council hopes to make this a yearly tradition for Riley's Children's Hospital.

Shoot'n Hoops

Being in a sport is not the easiest thing for anyone. You have to learn how to prioritize school work to get good grades while still practicing every day and making time to compete in games against other schools. There are also a lot of difficult times, like when you don't win a game, but there are some enjoyable and memorable times that go along with the bad times. Freshman Kaleb Scott said, "This season my coach taught me a lot about basketball and I think I really matured as a player; it was a really good experience."

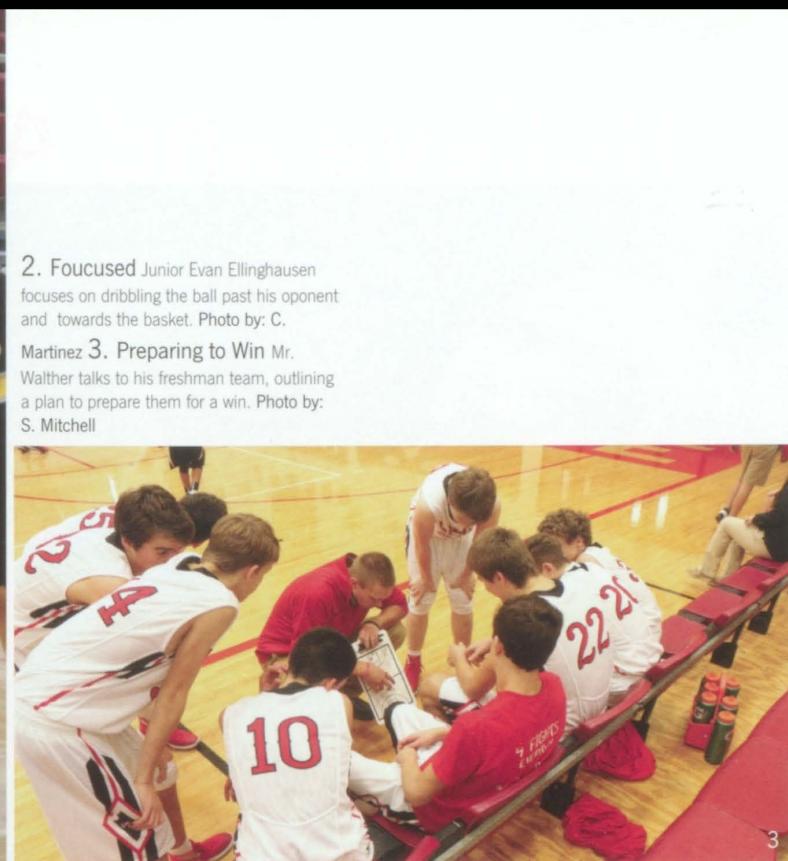

This season boys basketball had a couple of losses, but they did win some games. Sophomore Cordell Hart said, "I joined basketball because I love the game and wanted to take an opportunity to play it. This season was very fun and fulfilling, even though we didn't have that great of a record." Even though they had a few losses they did bring some wins back home. For example, the freshmen boy's basketball team beat Kankakee Valley's rival, Rensselaer Central High School, with a score of 37 to 2! But we all know that winning is not the easiest thing. In order to win you have to practice a lot. Like they say, "practice makes perfect." Through all the hardships, players never forget the good times that were spent with their teammates. At the end of the day, a love of the game is what brings players together in the first place.

Conference Champs

It was a very historic season for the girls basketball team breaking multiple school records. "The most memorable part of the season for me was beating Crown Point. It was our closest game and we were losing with a minute left in the game but we still pulled it out. It was the first time we have beat them in 41 years and it was such a great feeling to win," said sophomore Lindsey Stokes.

For the first time since 1994 the team went undefeated and won the NCC Conference. "It meant a lot to win conference because we hadn't done it in twenty-two years, and it was one of our goals the past two years so finally accomplishing it was great," said junior Emma Fase.

Blankets for Riley Hospital for Children

During October, the Crotchet Club held a fundraiser that consisted of selling tie dye socks in order to raise money for yarn and other equipment needed. They needed the yarn so they could create handmade blankets to donate to the children in need at Riley Hospital for Children. Several members of the crotchet club personally delivered approximately thirty hand crocheted blankets to the hospital. The Crochet club also donated blankets to the Jasper County Department of Child Services, and they distributed them to foster children. This tradition has been going on for several years, and the club hopes to keep their tradition going.

"The club members selected Riley because some of the members had friends or family members that had been to the hospital. I think this is an excellent place to donate because it is very meaningful for the blanket to go to kids that are battling a health problem. Each blanket takes many hours to make and members take pride in knowing the blanket will be comforting to the children," Mrs. Preston said.

Saying Good-bye to Old Teammates & Old Records

The boy's and girl's swim team brought in new freshmen. They offer a promising future for the team, while seniors said their good-byes. "Swimming has played a huge role in my high school career and has helped me to strive for the best. I have met so many amazing girls and our team is essentially just a huge family," says senior Klara Hausenfleck.

From the freshmen to the seniors, all participated in making the season an enjoyable year. A lot of goals were met. This year, the team had many personal records broken, many of which were incredibly close to school records.

Junior Jacob Campbell came within mere seconds of the record for 50 free holds. He has high hopes for his senior year. "I was proud of myself.. And happy that all the work I put in is showing. [My goal for next year is] to demolish the record so my name can stay on the board for years," says junior Jacob Campbell. "Breaking two personal records on my last swim meet ever was far more than I expected. It was an unforgettable, emotional night, and I'm so happy that those hard months of practice paid off," says senior Faith Hoffman.

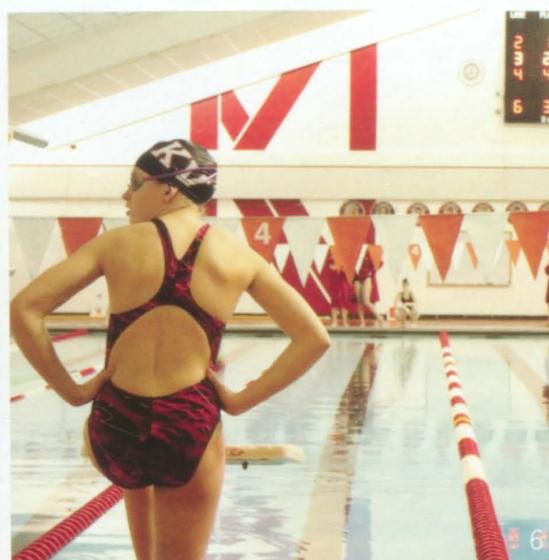

"The one thing I think I'll miss most... is just hanging out with the guys and having a good time."

Coming Together

Unraveling the Past to Connect with the Future

English and Social Studies are two subjects that go hand in hand. In English classes, students go back and read old historical writings that can date as far back as legalized slavery and the Revolutionary War, and as recently as CNN.com's latest trending news. As an English teacher, Mrs. Kingma confirms, "English and history completely intertwine when it relates to reading literature. For example, the setting of a story needs to be understood by students before they can really comprehend character motivation. My juniors are currently working on a Civil Rights Project, and the research, music, videos, and quotes are all based in our history."

Students don't always learn just from books or articles, they also learn from presenting projects and performing plays from hundreds of years ago. Learning about the past is important; students learn the bad and good decisions our ancestors made. Since history has the propensity to repeat itself, students learn from the decisions that have shaped our society. Studying English and history together helps students understand all kinds of people.

Working Towards the Future

Students Explore Careers

When joining a career class students' are usually looking for knowledge about their potential field of work. Choosing a career class makes choices for college and jobs much easier on high school students. Whether the student knows what their career path will be or not, these classes will inform them about that area of work.

Sophomore Shelby Carroll explained, "Being in a career-based class gives you more knowledge and understanding of the career you may be interested in. It shows you the different jobs there are in that area of work and it allows you to make friends with people who have common interests with you." Students who take career classes are better informed about what they will pursue when they are out of high school.

Family Doesn't Stop at Blood

"I believe wrestling creates a powerful bond because everyday we are pushing each other to do better and succeed, which is very empowering to me," commented senior Kreed Gentz.

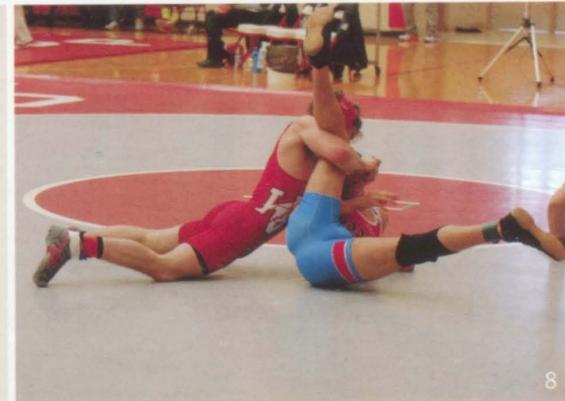

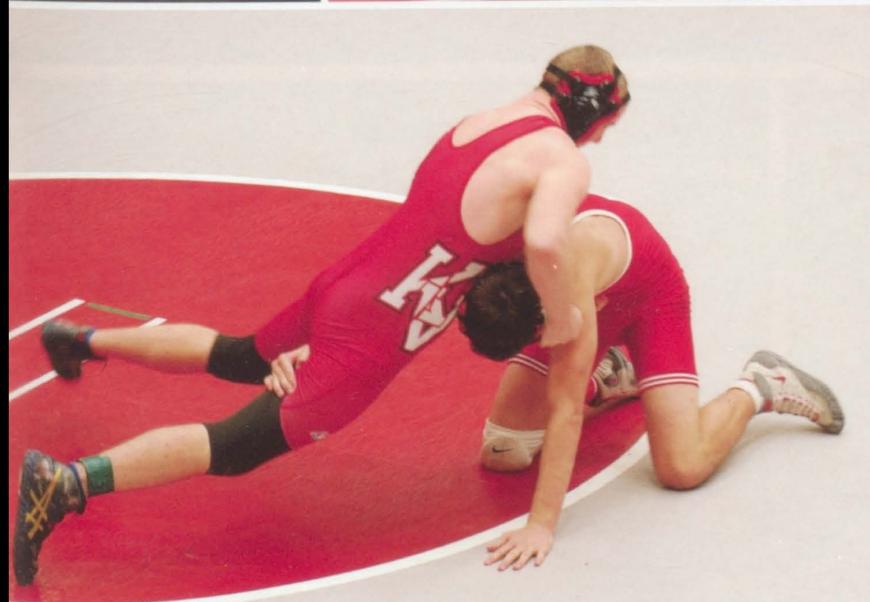

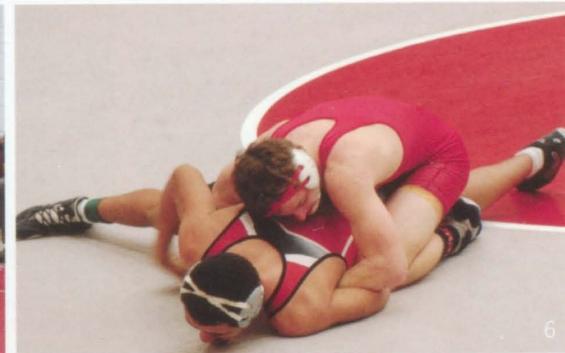

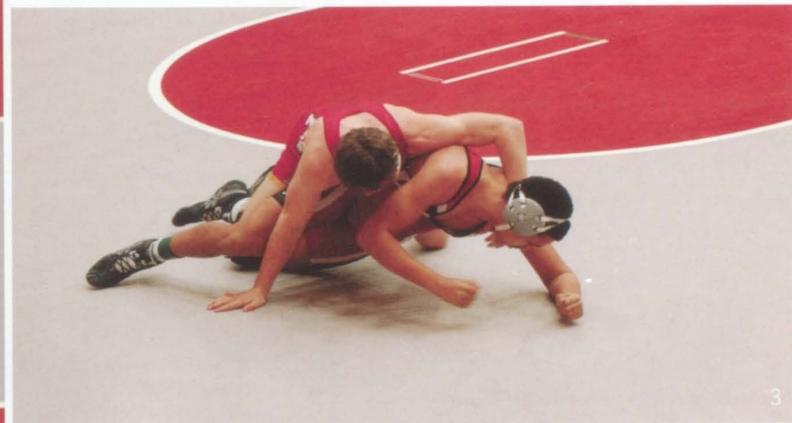

Wrestling isn't just a sport. To these athletes, wrestling is a passion. They put everything they have into it, and they don't balk at a little bit of blood.

"The team is like a family because everyone has your back through practice all the way to the end of your season. Having that kind of support is what drives the sport that I love," sophomore, Zackary Scott said. Wrestling isn't just a team to the players, but rather it is another family they have.

Show Some Spirit

Without Dance, What's the Pointe?

To kick off the 2015 football season, coach Fran Desimini decided to start a JV and Varsity dance team. With the amount of people that tried out for Dance, there were too many to just put on one team.

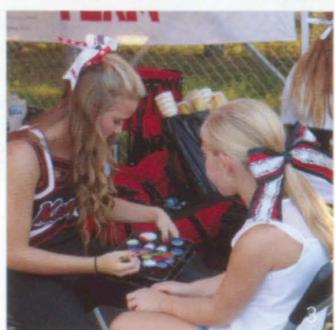

Everyone on the team dances a different and unique way. "Dancing is a universal language, it's kind of a way to express your emotions. There's so many different kinds of dance and anybody in the whole world could do it." senior dance team Captain Emily Tauber explains why she loves dance. "I'm glad that it's what I decided to do all throughout my high school career."

We are [United as] One

We all think, act, and look differently, but we can all be United as One

We all may act, think, and look differently, but we are all still United as One. Students get to do activities with other students that have disabilities and do not get to participate in other events. Kankakee Valley students are honored to be able to include these students. Sophomore Meghan Scott says, "I enjoy just being with the kids. I have always liked the special need kids because they are very youthful and very nice. They always make my day!" Many of the special need kids are also very excited to be included and to make new friends. United as One does special events like bowling, eating lunch together, and participating in a track event in the Spring. United as One is an excellent outreach club that gives students an opportunity to join all of the disabled kids together.

United as One

Track for some is not just about running and making the mark, it's about creating new bonds, new friendships, and making everyone feel accepted. In Unified Track, special needs kids work together with other students to compete in races; from these teams, new friendships and new perspectives are developed: "I learned that no matter what, enjoy yourself in what you are doing," said senior Trevor Wiesemann.

Every year, Unified Track gives the old school phrase "We are One," a deeper meaning. Making all students feel welcome to compete and be a part of a sports team is an important value our school shares. Unified track doesn't just have its eye on crossing the finish line, it has its eye on creating opportunities to include all students and promote a spirit of friendship and equality. "You could just see how proud they were; it really makes you feel like you're apart of something bigger," said sophomore Isabelle Molenaar.

One Guard, 1,000 Movements, One Goal

With the two hour practices, the team was pushed to its limits with new work, new routines, and dances they have never done in the past years. The past few years, Winter Guard has gone to state, and they have had the privilege to go again during this season. With that thought in mind, they expanded their practice hours and days, working harder than ever before.

Winter guard had many difficulties during this season. They all had to learn new techniques, and they had to extend their practices from two times a week to four times a week; however, all of that hard work prepared them for state.

State competition was held at Center Grove High School in Greenwood, Indiana. With fifty-seven teams competing, Winter Guard was able to use their personalized routines and tricks to place twenty-seventh overall. Congratulations Winter Guard, for a job well done!

Leading our School

One Step at a Time

National Honors Society is an organization for elite students who have many outstanding academic achievements. To be an active member of this society, each student is required to have a 3.7 or higher GPA, be nominated by a teacher, and serve a certain amount of community service. NHS is full of future leaders who will one day grow up and do great things. Many of them do volunteer work to make a difference in our community. They also work hard at making our school the best it can be. NHS helps students maintain a high GPA and help around in their community to show leadership skills.

Go Kougars!

Fear the Band

We are Red and White! Attending basketball games has changed over the years. More recently the band has split into two separate sections: Red Band and White Band. These two sections are under the combined direction of Mr. Boersma and Mr. Dinkins, who work tirelessly to create an atmosphere that is challenging to any visiting team.

Basketball Band is a part of the Band's curriculum. Students are drafted by the directors into two groups. Then, the groups rotate games to perform at. Even though students are drafted into separate groups, many still choose to attend all of the games to be with friends and cheer on the Kougars. During free throws students cheer, scream, and whistle really loudly in an attempt to make the other team miss.

"The Basketball Band is really the sixth man on the court. Between our cheering and screaming we hope to help the team on to victory," says Mr. Boersma.

Creating Friendships and the Future

5. Fix it Up Senior Jared Stemper is repairing computer boxes. Once it is repaired, it will be ready to use. Photo by: M. Collins

Joining clubs is often the key to making friends, but sometimes it makes a family instead. When asked what her favorite part of welding is, junior Abbigail McMahan replied. "Mr. Hass is my favorite part. I've never had a teacher who cares as much as Mr. Hass does. He will push you to your full potential. When my dad passed away, he gathered up the whole welding class to come to his wake. That made me see this was more than just a class; it was becoming my welding family. One weld at a time."

As well as learning important social skills, these clubs also teach technology skills that are not only useful, but almost necessary in today's society. The clubs help to bring ideas and originality to the students. They provide a creative outlet for the young minds of those with big imaginations. In Robotics, every activity is a student based project. There are many opportunities to construct and program robots. Welding club teaches you to do wig, stick, tig, and oxy-acet welding. Although, the club doesn't have any planned assignments, they do any repairs or tasks that they face. Computer club teaches you the fundamental parts of a computer by studying how info moves throughout the computer and other computer-based information.

Senior Jared Stemper said, "Being in computer club with the same people that are in my classes really helped me become better, closer friends with my classmates. Realizing this makes me wish I could have joined my freshman year and taken a more active role in the future of the club." Between the family values and the key technology skills, these clubs have it all. If there is one way to make learning fun, it's to do it with people you care about.

Speak Foreign to me

Many people take foreign language classes to learn to speak another language because they are interested in the country or just because they want to learn a new language. Junior Madison Rowen said, "At first I took foreign language because I had to, but I learned to love it. I'm currently in my third year of French. I really enjoy it and it has been one of my favorite classes and even given me the opportunity to travel to France."

Foreign language classes are known for making learning fun. The teachers put passion and all their hearts into teaching students, they make learning fun so you have a better understanding of what the culture is like and so they fully understand the language. For the first time, the French and German classes decided to do a traditional dance from France and Germany to teach the students more about these cultures and their traditions.

Even though it can be fun, learning a new language can also be challenging. Sophomore Kira Woolever said, "I took a foreign language to be able to expand places I would be able to travel to when I'm older. I have enjoyed German so far. It's a lot of work but a lot of fun."

1. Rock, Paper, Scissors, or Bear, Ninja, Hunter? Students celebrating Oktoberfest play a game called 'Bear, Ninja, Hunter' instead of the traditional game 'Rock, Paper, Scissors.' "I took German because I hope to travel to Germany one day to learn about my heritage. # Helping Out

Better Piece by Piece

Both the Pioneerz and Environmental Clubs work together to better themselves, others, and the environment: in either a religious or secular way. Together they make the world a better place.

Environmental Club members were privileged with a trip to visit Starved Rock to hike, see eagles, and learn new ways to protect the planet by hearing the words of others who wish to conserve the planet. They enjoyed this time with their teacher Ms. Patterson during her last year at Kankakee Valley, as she will be retiring after almost forty years of teaching.

Pioneerz worked this year to spread the word of the gospel and better their relationship with God. Together they showed their support to one another by helping each other keep their faith strong during tough times. As Christians, they worked to not only better their faith but also the faith of their friends and family around them.

Nothing But Treble

Eat. Sleep. Orchestra. Repeat!

Anyone can whistle a melody; however, it takes an Orchestra to perform it as a Symphony. To some, Orchestra is just a bunch of instruments playing. To others, Orchestra is a form of compassion and creating something more than just music. Being in Orchestra, students meet new people, and they become great friends. They go from making music individually, to creating a beautiful sound together.

String Orchestra this year has met many challenges and many new experiences. Mr. Boersma returned to the podium in his second year of leading the group, and he was joined by Mr. Dinkins. In the spring, when the Full Orchestra was made available to the ensemble, Mr. Dinkins lead the preparation for them, and Mr. Boersma continued with just the string orchestra.

"I really love working with the strings. The style of music that they help create is mesmerizing... It is also a great change of pace from teaching the band classes. They are different character of student and I enjoy being around all of them. All of the hours of rehearsal helps to lead up to performances that give back to their families for the many hours of practice, or lessons that our parents put forth driving the[ir] students to," explained Mr. Boersma.

Family Isn't Always Related

"I never really knew how close-knitted the cheer team was until I joined. They all are amazing girls and athletes. I don't see the cheer team just as my team. They are my family and coach Sam is our mom. Cheer has formed my future and who I am today," junior Alyssa Evolga said.

Sometimes family doesn't mean being related by blood, but by bond. Through thick and thin, the cheerleaders manage to put their difference aside and work together as a family. By supporting each other through practices, competitions, and games, being a cheerleader is harder than what it looks like.

"We accidentally hurt each other all the time. Stunting takes a lot of physical abuse, but at the end of the day, all the bruises and hard work is worth it," senior Emily Poe said. Getting hurt goes with the turf, but cheerleaders manage to not take the pain personally. In the end, cheerleaders know how to come together as one.

Red Carpet Ready!

Everyone looks forward to their senior prom. All over social media, prom goers uploaded their tuxes and dresses to show their friends and family how they transformed from original to prom special edition. Although prom isn't just limited to seniors, anyone in the school can go if they are accompanied by an upperclassmen, which makes prom a better experience.

As part of the theme, Yearbook asked the student body to submit pictures with their friends, teachers, and family members.

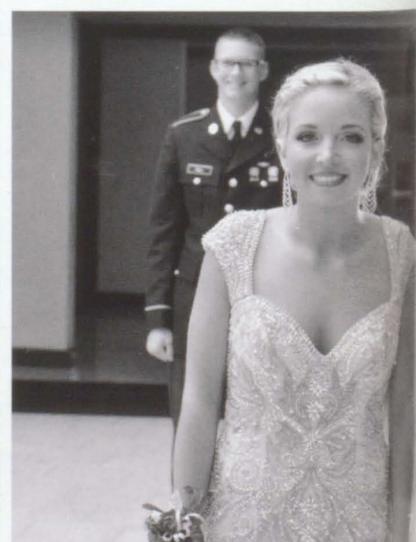

"Everyone gets to see how they look at prom, but they never get to see the process of getting ready for it. Prom is something that needs time and requires organization for it to be perfect," said yearbook advisor Mrs. Deulley.

A Night at the Big Apple

The City Life

If you ask your parents what their favorite memory from high school was, they will most likely say something along the lines of a school dance, especially prom.

For a lot of people, prom is a night that will always be remembered, especially for seniors. "Knowing that it was my last prom, it was a bittersweet moment," said senior Nathan Guerrero. "During prom, I was nothing but smiles and the night was perfect. So in conclusion, I guess my senior prom was pretty great!"

Senior Emily Poe was crowned prom queen, while senior Nick Deering was crowned prom king. It was a night filled with memories, and students had a lot of fun.

Although prom is a large milestone for upperclassmen, it can also be a great event for underclassmen who were invited by juniors and seniors. "My experience was kind of intimidating because of all the upperclassmen, but it didn't really make it any less enjoyable. My overall time at prom was

"unforgettable," explained sophomore Mikaela Bradley. "During prom, it was boiling hot, but I had a lot of fun dancing. After prom was great because we made lots of memories at Taco Bell."

"Overall, prom was an awesome, fun, and quite expensive experience," shared freshman Ashur Adams. Prom truly can be an unforgettable time for just about anyone. These are the times that make high school memories the best: especially late-night Taco Bell runs after prom.

But First, Let Me Take a Selfie

Prom is many things to many people. Prom is a night to remember, a night to forget, or a night closer to graduation. No matter what, a lot of memories were made that night. When students look back at that time, they can say that they lived through the ups and downs: the moments when everything went as planned, and the moments when everything went helter-skelter. "It was crazy because I had to work, then go home and get ready in ten minutes to get my date and then go take pictures," remembers sophomore Trystan Steele. Many students were busy before prom began: "It was really stressful making my hair appointment and makeup and trying to estimate how long it's going to take for my hair and makeup to be done," said sophomore Mayra Davila Acero.

Not everything lasts forever but having a great party at the end of the year was a great way to celebrate all of these students' hard work. Make memories that last a lifetime, live in the instant, and don't look back.

Running for Success

Boy's and Girl's Track Work Hard

Track is a fun and highly competitive sport. Boy's track had an average performance and they are trying to gain even more members. Mr. Adams is the coach for boy's track and he says, "I enjoy helping the athletes find an event that they are best at and then help[ing] them improve in that event."

Girl's track has also had a good season. They placed second at conference and are preparing for sectionals, followed by regionals. Boys and Girls also hope to go participate at state. It was freshman Garrett Brewster's first year in track and he said, "I had a great time with my buds and I cannot wait for next year." On the girl's track team, freshman Sarah Martin said, "Being a freshman in track was intimidating running against upper classman at first, but in the end they supported me 110%." On the other hand, Junior Val Peterson, who has been in track a few years, commented, "I enjoy the competition that will encourage me to push myself to my limit and beyond." Boy's and girl's track teams have a bright future ahead of them.

"The relationships you develop with everyone and your coaches are priceless." -Bryant Phegley, 10

Luck Be a Lady

Theater Goes Vintage

"You might forget your manners, you might refuse to stay, and so the best that I can do is pray. One, two, three, four, five!" These lines come from the cast's favorite song "Luck Be A Lady" from the 2016 Spring play, Guys and Dolls, directed by Mrs. Jill Steiner. Being the last show of the year, many of the seniors felt nostalgic on the final performance night. "My first show was when I was in seventh grade. I was shy and awkward and all I wanted was to do a good job. As for my last, it was a total time warp. Compared to my first show, I felt confident, and I had gone from chorus to lead!" exclaimed senior Sarah Schaetzl.

For many, theater is a place that students can feel free to be themselves and express their talent in their own way. For seniors, it is especially difficult to perform their last show because it may be their last time on stage if they do not plan to participate in community or college theater. "Knowing it was my last show, it all felt surreal," explained senior Liz Torbitt. "I was both happy and sad all at the same time. It might be my last, but all the memories will still live on that stage."

The total show took weeks to prepare, but only took place within about 22 practices. Most would say that 22 days is a short time to put together a two-act show, but for director Jill Steiner, it is something of second nature: "we spend our time creating magic instead of making excuses."

Don't Strike Out

Everyone wants to win and nobody likes to feel like a failure or let their team down. Baseball had a rough season, and although their hopes hanged low, their baseball manager held hers high. Junior Julianna Phelps explains, "I love seeing the boys get all hyped up when they're having a good inning or when they're playing at different fields. Watching them do cool things and enjoy the game is an experience I wouldn't trade." Even though the boys had a rough season, they still feel united. Senior Gregory Larzelere said the one thing he would really miss about baseball was "my teammates because they're the best group of guys I've ever come to know."

Going to State

One for the Books

Hard work and dedication is what lead the varsity softball team to state. They were runner-ups at state. The community was very proud of the girls; the pride was so great that, after every win since regionals, the team was escorted by firetrucks and police vehicles. This is the first year that KV softball team won regionals and had the chance to play at state.

The girls put in a lot of practices this year. Even after school ended, the team's season was still in play: they still had to wake up early and go to practices. The girls take pride in all their wins and accomplishments. This was truly a year that will be remembered for many years to come. Congratulations to varsity softball!

Players to Battle

Computer Club Lends a PAW

What does LAN stand for? It stands for Local Area Network. Computer Club uses this acronym for their yearly party which raises money for PAWS (Progressive Animal Welfare Society). PAWS is an animal shelter based out of Lakeshore, Indiana. This event has been going on for three years strong, and it has raised six hundred and seventy-eight dollars. Students came to school on March 12th to play video games and have fun. Senior Zachary Stalhandske said, "All of the participants... [were] my favorite part. Being able to play games with my fellow clubmates is amazing."

All proceeds went to PAWS. Not only does PAWS benefit the pet, but it also benefits the community itself. Junior Hunter Baggerly said, "It helps the community by taking donations from those who attended to give to charity." Computer Club does a great job of supporting their community.

Let's Add 'Em Up

Math, social studies, and science classes that are offered in the state of Indiana are only required to be taken three years out of their four year high school career, unlike English, that must be taken for four years. This makes math and science classes seem less important than English.

Since they are only required to be taken for three years, a high percentage of seniors do not take advantage of taking another year of either of these courses that are offered.

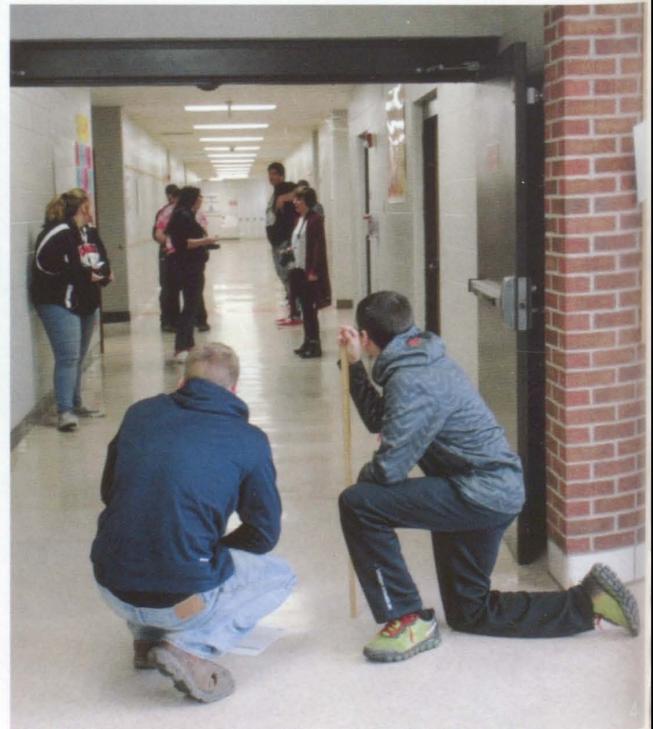

"The reason I didn't [take] a math class this year is because I wanted to have more time to focus on the classes that I needed to pass to graduate instead of classes that I didn't need," said senior Felicia Galusha.

Although students are not required to take these courses, many state colleges advise high school students to take advantage of them.

"Half of all american community students must take remedial math..." according to the advocacy group Complete College America.

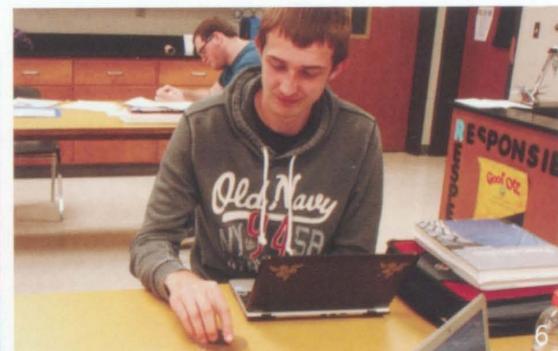

Many underclassmen have already decided they will not be taking a science or math course their senior year. For example, sophomore Alejandro Zavala Hernandez explained how he doesn't see a point in taking classes that aren't required.

"It's not required to be taken, so I'm not going to waste my time taking a class I don't need. Instead, I'll take another engineering class that would help me in my future career," Zavala said.

One Brush Stroke at a Time

The World of Art

Mr. Cochran and Mrs. Preston teach all of the art classes that are available at Kankakee Valley High School. They encourage students to be creative in their artwork and for them to try their hardest. The world of art is a very exciting place. It opens up many possibilities for people of all ages to express themselves through the form of painting, sculpting, three dimensional art, and so much more. "You can always go to it to throw your emotion down on a big canvas, using different colors and materials to show how you feel or feel toward something," explained Nathan Hudecek, 10. Students often take these art classes to pursue a career in this profession.

Over the years, many students had the opportunity to show off their artwork at places such the Regional High School Art Show at Saint Joseph's College. Art means a lot to each and every student in this class, and through art is how they express themselves. Each student has a technique they prefer over another.

Junior Miranda White expounds on this idea: "My favorite media to work with [is] ceramics. It means the world to me to express myself just with a ball of clay. It turns out to be amazing." Some students prefer painting, while others prefer sculpting. No matter which style of art students prefer, their art always comes together because of the hard work and determination of the art teachers.

Sophomore Mitchell Calderone expresses the emotion he feels when he's at the piano: "When I play piano, my brain lets go and my hands take over."

Sophomore Vanessa Donovan enjoyed being in Jazz choir, "I was super excited. It was great knowing that our music would shine on stage after all that practice."

Freshman Olivia Veldman enthuses, "My favorite part of choir is the people and our two teachers because... they are so nice and welcoming."

Don't be Sharp, be Natural

Jazz Choir Takes the Stage

Let the show begin! Chorus director, Mrs. Faletto, brought a new choir to the stage for the Christmas concert. Jazz choir is a smaller group that requires an audition, and they perform more soulful numbers. Sophomore Toby Aldrich says, "Jazz choir is a very fun time and I get to socialize with my friends." Jazz choir is one of four choirs. The others are beginning, intermediate(which is an all female choir), and advanced.

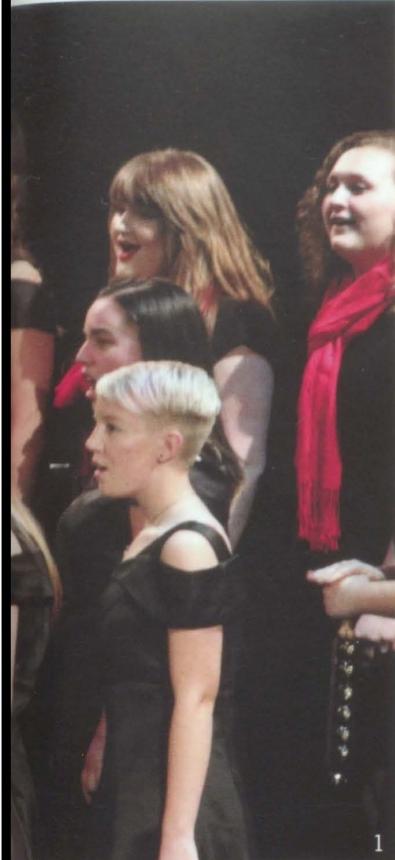

Choir isn't just a class to most of the choral musicians. When asked if she would continue choir after high school, senior Elizabeth Torbitt said, "Well, duh! I mean singing is my life. What else will I be doing with my life after high school? I love being a part of choir." Choir lets everyone sing their hearts out without judgment. Gabrielle McClain stated, "I love all of it. Singing, participating in ISSMA, going on field trips, having concerts, and fundraisers. Most of all I love the concert at the end of the year with the band and the orchestra."

Overcoming Changes

Wisking it All

Ms. Kelly Benge has been teaching Family and Consumer Science, or FACS, for a few years now, but recently she had to make a change. In November Benge went on maternity leave and had to leave her culinary and nutrition and wellness classes with a substitute teacher, Ms. Smalley until March.

When asked about how the adjustment effected her freshman Daniel Wells said "I don't think it changed very much but, I did miss her, she was a really good teacher. Also I liked her sense of humor but, her class did change a bit."

One of the main things that students had to adjust to was the differences between the two teachers. From the way they teach to the setup of their tests there were many differences. Students mentioned that Ms. Benge has more experience and knows how things are run. Ms. Smalley was more laid back but still continued to teach hands on like Benge. It was obvious that both teachers put their hearts into the job and cared for the students.

Even though students had to learn with a substitute for about five months they still learned the same things that was originally planed for them to learn. Nutrition and Wellness still got to make their Christmas cookies, and Culinary still got to make their food People who got to know both teachers will tell you that mistakes have been made and the process has been a little slower but you have to give both teachers credit because they have accomplished everything they needed to.

Record, Edit, Render, and Repeat

Channel Yourself

Record, edit, render, and repeat: a mantra anyone in broadcasting knows by heart. This can either lead to an easy day or a painful time crunch. What other group could churn out "What's happening" every week? So much time and effort went into each episode that they wrote, filmed, and edited.

"On Friday, we start pre-planning and assigning roles. We write our scripts over the weekend and we film and edit until Friday second hour when the whole episode is due," co-producer Sara Dykstra said.

Like any good program, broadcasting works together as a team. Sections are all spread out, and everyone had their own part that they film.

"Sports is my favorite because there is a lot of enthusiasm from the students. There is charisma in the air when the camera is rolling. From the bloopers to the finished copy, sports is amazing!" said senior Shawn Stephenson. Some students join because they like it so much. "I enjoy it and it's just fun," said senior Stephen Anderson.

Hitting It into the Future!

Girl's Tennis & Girl's Golf Work Hard

Going into the 2016 season, the girls start off with some tough competitions and hardworking practices. Every single one of these girls has worked hard to get to where they are. Most of these girls will pursue tennis and golf in the future when they go to college, while others will pursue it only as a hobby. Pursuing this in college could lead to some incredible opportunities for these girls. "I love playing tennis in high school, and if there is a spot open in college, it's mine!" said junior Christina Birkly about the passion she feels for her sport.

Why Music? Why Concert Band?

The Question is... Why Not?

Concert Band is a place for everyone. Traditionally, some people believe that music is a place for talented people only. This concept is false: anyone can learn music. While it is true that some are more talented than others, which is also true with sports, those that work the hardest will always beat those that are just relying on their talent to carry them through. "To quote a very famous leader, Dr. Tim Lautzenheiser, music is NOT just for the "CHOSEN FEW," but music is for all those who want to pursue an exciting pathway of learning and truthfully shouldn't that be everyone?" asked Mr. Boersma. Clearly, students agree: since Mr. Boersma took over in 2007, student enrollment has swelled from 61 students to 175 students.

Our Concert Bands here are divided into two groups; the Wind Ensemble is under the direction of Mr. Boersma, and the Symphonic Band is under the direction of Mr. Dinkins. Both groups rehearse tirelessly to perform concerts seven times per year. During the fall, marching band music is rehearsed in class, and during the winter, holiday concert music is rehearsed in class. Students also utilize class time to rehearse for Basketball Band.

April was a particularly busy month. Both concert bands received Gold ratings for their performances at the ISSMA Organizational, and Wind Ensemble also earned a Gold rating in sight reading. May brings the End of the Year Concert, and preparation for their Gaudation performance in June. Sophomore Robert Peschke adds, "I feel a strong sense of pride performing as much as we do. When other students see different members of the Band in the hallway and congratulate us on... [the] pride we bring, it shows me that this school isn't full of people that only care about sports."

Roll Out

The Kankakee Valley Boy's and Girl's bowling teams are fairly new, but that doesn't make them any less of a threat. The girl's team had to rely on all new coaches. They came in second in their conference but took the trophy home for sectionals: winning by a mere two pins and advancing to regionals. Kendall Winnick, sophomore, placed first in individual sectionals for the girls. "During the final rounds of sectionals everyone has their eyes on just you and the other girl with you. I felt very pressured, but I stayed calm and focused the whole time," said Winnick.

The boys were the runner-ups at sectionals, also advancing to regionals. Tristan Garza, junior, won Individual Sectionals for the boys. Kendall Winnick, sophomore, Mikayla Collins, sophomore, Donald Arnold, junior, and Tristan Garza, junior all advanced to regionals as individuals. Sadly, regionals was the end of the road for both teams and all individuals, except for Tristan Garza who advanced on to Semi-State. "I didn't think I was going to make it as far as I did. Making it that far in bowling made me feel accomplished and proud of what I had achieved," said Garza.

Freshmen and Sophomores were able to participate in one more tournament called Futures Tournament, which is only for underclassmen. "Coming in as the only freshman, I felt like an outsider, but then I felt welcomed when we all started to talk. This season has been the most fun I've had in bowling, and I can't wait till next year!" said Raegan Johnson, freshman.

Archery Replaces Swimming

Put away the swimsuits and grab a bow. Archery has replaced swimming. Due to the five thousand dollar grant that the school received, students were able to learn how to shoot a bow.

Students were excited about the new program. Sophomore Abbey Ayres said, "Archery is probably my favorite thing we've done in P.E so far. It requires a lot of focus and practice." This warm response was typical of most freshman. As long as students continue to exercise good safety choices, archery will likely be around for a long time.

One Person Can Make a Difference

SADD Takes a Stand

For many years SADD, an organization whose aim is to prevent students from making destructive decisions, has hosted an assembly which features a fake car crash; this demonstration helps juniors and seniors understand the dangers of drunk driving, distracted driving, and unplanned pregnancies. Every time SADD hosts it, they try to make it as realistic as possible. They even bring the local fire department and police officers in to demonstrate a scenario that could happen in the real world.

This year, however, SADD decided to host an assembly that focused on the dangers of prom and drunk driving. They decided to bring police officers in to tell real life experiences and accidents that happened to them because they decided to make bad decisions and partake in things that they later regretted.

SADD also hosts several blood drives with the American Red Cross to help people that are in need. Every two seconds someone in the U.S. needs blood. SADD has done these blood drives for many years and encourages all the students and staff to partake in this to help people in need. Just one person who donates blood can save a person's life. When asked why people should donate blood to help others Mrs. Kwiatkowski, the adviser of SADD replied, "It's free! It helps others in the most essential way. It also makes you feel good to give and help others out! First time donors become lifetime donors."

So if students are looking for a club to join, and they enjoy helping people, join SADD. "What I love most [about] SADD is the positive message that the club teaches students," said Junior Spencer Carey.

After asking Gavin Coppage how he felt to be graduating, he said: "Even though I resented the idea of waiting for two hours to be officially graduated, it hit me like a truck when I realized I will never see all of my friends like again. ## Next Step: Your Choice

Since the first day of high school, the Class of 2016 was ready to graduate. Now that the moment is here, they're ready more than ever. Hearing speeches from the Salutatorian, Valedictorian, and Class President, it made the seniors think of their future and to remember where they came from. Just like class president Hunter Ahrendt said in his speech, "High school years may have been the best or worst years of your life, but all the moments inbetween are what brought you here." Congratulations to the class of 2016, and may life take you down the right path.

Hunter Ahrendt

Hunter Ahrendt has been very involved in high school. Hunter was in student council, soccer, golf, cheerleader lifting, football, band, marching band, table tennis, and robotics. He served in Student Council, and he was class president for the senior class. Hunter said, "I felt very proud being in charge, and my favorite part is helping out classmates."

Even though Hunter had a busy schedule, he enjoyed everything that he was involved in and all of the open opportunities that came with them. Hunter will miss constant laughing and joking with all of his friends and all of the teachers that impacted his life.

Being a male cheerleader lifter is something that Hunter will miss, too. "I always had a lot of fun and loved the privilege to show off with the other guys." Band has been a big part of Hunter's life. He played the bassoon for Concert Band and tenor drum for Marching Band. After high school, Hunter wants to become a surgeon and then a millionaire. Hunter's advice to others is, "Don't be afraid of trying new things or being uncomfortable because you do not want to regret not trying."

Smile big! Hunter Ahrendt is full of smiles because he is going to be graduating soon. He proudly shows off his letterman jacket, while leaning on a classic Chevy truck.

"KV has been such a great place, and its teachers and students have given me the start I need to be successful in life.

In my high school career. I've been involved in football, art club, wrestling, diving, engineering courses, and the poetry society." Drawing, however, has always been really important to me.

"At first, I just drew for fun, but when I started getting recognition for it, I pushed myself to learn many different types of art. I started competing in competitions with great success. Over time, I began to evolve my own style that was mostly inspired by the more spiritual wonders of reality. With my artistic abilities, I hope to be a striving artist alongside a career in anthropology.

My plans after school include going to Indiana University to pursue an education in anthropology and digital arts.

I'll miss being able to be with my high school friends on a daily basis. So, thank you to everyone for everything."

When asked what advice he would give to people, Cody said, "If you want to do something, then do it. You are the only one getting in the way of what you want to do."

Casey Hennings

Senior Casey Hennings has dedicated her high school career to not only doing her best in all her classes, but to learning French. "I have always been extremely interested in foreign languages, particularly French because my Mom would teach me simple phrases when I was little. I distinctly remember asking her to show me how to count to ten in French in elementary school!"

"As I have grown older, I have realized that language is such a wonderful window into different cultures and that it is very difficult to truly understand a nation's customs and history without also having a substantial knowledge of their languages. My summer in France was absolutely phenomenal. For seven weeks I was essentially a French demoiselle; I spoke only French and lived with a famille d'accueil (host family) in Saumur, France, going about my daily life exactly as they did. I often remarked to my professors about how liberating it felt, above all, to be free from the ties of modern communication and to be living independently while forming relationships with my new family that will last a lifetime. In all, spending those seven weeks in France alone was a risk I am so grateful I took, and an experience I know I will never forget!" raved Casey Hennings.

Emily Poe

Emily Poe is very involved in high school. She is cheer team captain and a part of BPA Club. Emily had the honor of participating at Nationals in Boston for BPA. She is the head producer of Radio and TV Broadcasting class. One of her greatest accomplishments was winning 2nd place at BPA's state competition for creating an amazing video with her team.

One of Emily's favorite memories was being able to become a cheer captain her senior year. She loved helping out her team to success and helping them through anything. She wants cheer to be an awesome experience for everyone.

Emily has a huge interest and passion for Broadcasting and filming. She will miss the radio and TV Broadcasting class, students, and teacher. She would like to continue her dream by attending Ball State University for Telecommunications, then after that she plans on pursuing her goal in the fluorescent green lights and cameras. Or perhaps even become a director or producer.

Emily encourages people to not wait to pursue their dreams and to not worry if you fit in or not or what someone tweeted on twitter. Emily concludes, "I am following my dreams with every intention of them coming true; You should follow your dreams, too."

Alyssa Serviss

"I have had a fervor for music and the arts since I was a small child, and my mom says that I have been singing since before I could talk. It has always been something I loved doing, and I learned from an early age that it was something I had a knack for."

After asking Alyssa how tryouts for The Voice went, she said: "It was definitely a great experience. Out of the nearly 20,000 that were there in Chicago alone, I was astounded by the talent that surrounded me. It was so rad to be in a room with people that shared a common interest."

Even though Alyssa didn't make it on the show, her adventures are nowhere near over. "I decided to start my own band because I wanted to get a group of people together that had a common interest: a love for music. When you write/ play with people you connect on a deeper level. I intend on playing gigs and putting myself out there until I make it. If pursuing my dream means that I will be struggling for a while, financially or otherwise, then that's okay. At least one thing will be certain; I will be happy."

Alex Villapando

"The start of my high school career I laid low for the most part, as I was just trying to fit into this new environment. As time passed I started to open up more and try new things. My sophomore year was the first year where I actually participated in a school sport, which was soccer. My ambitions went both towards sports and the arts. Being a part of these contrasting activities really helped me develop as an individual and get out of my semi-shy state. I have tried to participate in as many events as I can, some of which include National Honor Society, Ping-Pong Club, Soccer, Concert Band, Jazz Band, Basketball Band, Pit Band, and later in my career: Winter Drumline, Improv, and Theatre."

"I want to be remembered by my willingness to help others... at events and that I did my best to treat everyone as they should be. I plan to attend Indiana State University... [and] major in Music Education and [I] am undecided as of yet if I will minor in anything. Looking back at my high school career, I can see how much I have changed and tried new things and I encourage everyone to go... try some new things; you... never know how much they might change your life until you [try it]," exhorted Alex Villapando.

Leah Michelle Harper

*May You Rest in Peace
1998–2009*

"Her absolute passion was cheerleading: she couldn't wait to cheer in high school... We used to build forts in the woods, bike around until our legs hurt, and swim until dark. We fought all of the time like siblings do, but what I wouldn't give to hear her scream my name again. I think about and miss her every single day." - Kayley Harper

"Fifth grade getting yelled at everyday for chewing gum and being told to spit it out and acting like we did, but still chewing it."
- Darrick Webster, 12

"In 4th grade I was having a very bad Valentine's Day, and Leah gave me a very heartfelt card saying that I was beautiful and tomorrow will be better; I still have the card."
- Faith Hoffman, 12

"When I brought my bird to our 6th grade class, and he got spooked on Leah's head. She just kept laughing, it was contagious. However, I just thoroughly enjoyed every moment, every laugh, and every memory I have of Leah Michelle Harper." - Tabitha Hart, 12

Juniors

In the past years, the class of 2017 were instructed to take the PSAT as sophomores. They took half a day to complete it and didn't have to worry about seeing it again, but this year, Indiana changed the SAT. The PSAT that the current juniors took their sophomore year had no beneficial advantage for them. The old SATs were focused on writing, math, and reading skills, now the test focuses on technical responsibilities and technical reading. Before, you had a choice whether you could take the practice SAT (PSAT) or not. The junior class was forced to take them, since the state paid for it. "I'm excited that they changed it, but I also think two essays is a lot for a test like that. Whatever helps us pass is what really matters," explains Junior Kylie Mann.

Not only are the SATs on the Juniors mind, but also college visits. Junior and Senior year are usually spent going on college visits to explore options different colleges have to offer. This can sometimes be really intimidating for students, going to colleges and realizing the future is right around the corner, but eventually everything falls into place.

Sophomores

Everything changes in an instant. You feel uncomfortable freshman year. Everyone knows that it's a hot mess, filled with lots of anxiety and stress, and you also know that you're the youngest in the school again, unlike before you were the oldest one in the middle school, but when sophomore year comes around you end up getting used to everything and you're a lot more comfortable.

Freshman year down, but another has begun. As the new year began sophomores had to adjust one more time to new teachers, new classes, and being in different classes than their friends. Everyone says that every year of high school will be better than freshman year, but why is that? Sophomore year can be great in many ways. You know the way around the school already, you have your group of friends to come back to after summer, and you have your life a little more figured out instead of all scattered around not knowing what classes to take. You've also probably been through all the mistakes in the book that you could possibly make.

Sophomore Callee Richardson said, "For me sophomore year is a lot more calm, I feel a lot more confident walking around the school, with the students, teachers, and my classes. Sophomore year, unlike freshman year, I feel more accepted to be in clubs and to join in school activities. During freshman year I think you worry more about being in the same classes as friends, being in the same lunch as your friends, and not getting lost. Sophomore year you kind of just go with it because we know how everything works."

Sophomore Nicholas Raymond agreed with Callee, "The biggest difference between freshman year and sophomore year is the atmosphere around you. I was kind of nervous in the beginning but got used to it after about the first nine weeks. You know the school so much better that you began to get very comfortable."

Freshmen

At the beginning of the year, freshmen received new Dell laptops. Between learning how to use the new laptops and finding their way in a new school, freshmen year was a challenge. As Liliana Wright put it, "Back in middle school, all of your classes were all pretty close to each other. Once you get to high school, the setup might have freaked you out a little, but once you learned where everything was, getting to all of your classes on time became really easy." It was hard at the beginning, but eventually freshmen got the hang of it.

Freshmen are not the only ones "getting the hang of it" though, Kankakee Valley also received several new students. Freshmen, along with other new students, have a lot of new opportunities. Ranging from school day activities to extracurricular activities, students choose between clubs, sports, academic teams, and other activities. Along with these new opportunities comes an increased emphasis on homework, grades, GPA, class rank, and lots more. Freshmen are doing a great job attending school regularly; they won the attendance incentive in the first quarter. By winning the attendance incentive, Freshmen won vanilla ice cream.

Faculty

One of the biggest changes at the high school was that the students believed that the dress code changed; however, it did not change at all. This began once Mr. Spagna, the new principal, arrived in the school, and now students are more willing to disobey the dress code. Some of the faculty was interviewed to see why. The answers were all the same; none of them could pinpoint an exact reason. With those answers another question was brought up. Why is the dress code strict? This is what Mr. Spagna, Mr. Skrobul, and Mrs. Meadows had to say:

"By taking pride in how you dress, you are representing yourself in a respectful manner. School is to help you prepare for the real world. How you dress could be the first impression a possible employer has of you. First impressions go a long way."
- Mr. Spagna

"It's a proven fact that the way you dress is a direct reflection of the pride you have in your work and the way you present yourself. If you look good, you will perform well."
- Mrs. Meadows

"We don't allow holes because clothes should be good repair. When you look good, you feel good, and do better in school."

Colophon

Kougar Pride Volume 45 was produced by the yearbook staff at Kankakee Valley in Wheatfield, IN with the guidance of advisor Rochelle Deulley and Co-Editors Cynthia Martinez and Jessica McLean.

Kougar Pride was printed by Herff Jones in Edwardsville, KS and serviced by Inplant Lisa Merino and local representative Betty Samples. The color was designed by Martinez and McLean with the help of designer Darren Kennedy, and was a representation of the theme and school by using a variety of colors to reflect [In]st[an]t.

Pride's 200 pages were printed in full color on 100 pound bordeaux special gloss paper. All body copy and caption lead was set to 10pt AHJ News Gothic Book type font. Captions was set in 8pt AHJ News Gothic Book Light type font. Headlines were 48 pt AHJ News Gothic Book Medium type font. Pride was online published using HJ eDesign on LED Technology Acer and Dell Computers.

Thousands of pictures were taken with two Canon Rebel XTI digital cameras and a Canon EOS 70D. All grade portraits were taken by Image Perfect Photography.

At publication, 350 yearbooks had been sold at a cost of $55-75, depending on the date of purchase.

This book was produced by high school journalism students. In spite of numerous proof readings by the students, section editors, head editors, and the advisor, and the administrators, there may be some errors, none of which were intentional.

At first I was dying to grow up and go to high school
Then I was dying to finish high school and go to college
Then I was dying to finish college and start working
Then I was dying to get married and have children
Then I was dying for my children to grow old enough so I can go back to work
Then I was dying to retire
And now I am dying
And I suddenly realized
I forgot to live...

2015-2016 WORLD YEARBOOK

PILLARS OF CREATION In honor of the 25th anniversary of the Hubble space telescope, scientists captured a more recent image of Eagle Nebula's iconic sight of cold gas lit up by stars.

GUN RIGHTS VS GUN CONTROL Debates continued, deaths mounted and protests focused continued attention on the issue. With many mass shootings and a single-day record of 185,345 background checks for prospective gun buyers on Black Friday, the topic was ever-present. MAJOR INCIDENTS Mass shootings at a state-run developmental facility in San Bernadino, CA; a Planned Parenthood clinic in Colorado Springs; a community college in Roseburg, OR; military centers in Chattanooga, TN and a Charleston, SC church were deadly. #BLACKLIVESMATTER Because additional high-profile cases involving police-related deaths occurred, protests and debate about law enforcement and race relations continued.

EQUAL DIGNITY Just a month after the Supreme Court ruled 5-4 that states cannot keep same-sex couples from marrying and must recognize their unions, the Boy Scouts of America lifted its ban on openly gay adults as scout leaders. AVIAN FLU A severe outbreak crippled the domestic egg and poultry industries, affecting nearly 50 million birds, creating shortages and causing record-high prices.

IN THE MIX While a nomination would not be official until after the RNC in Cleveland in July, 2016, five Republican candidates remained active throughout the primary season. Ben Carson, a Maryland surgeon; Texas senator Ted Cruz; Ohio governor John Kasich; Florida senator Marco Rubio and New York businessman Donald Trump met in 13 debates and seven forums to make their ideas known. Ten other candidates had filed, but withdrew sometime before the first caucuses in Iowa and another seven left the race as primaries heated up. LESS CROWDED FIELD Maryland governor Martin O'Malley left the race following the Iowa caucus in January and Democratic presidential contenders Hillary Clinton and Bernie Sanders took turns "winning" states early on.

Clinton, the former Secretary of State and New York senator, and Sanders, a Vermont senator, would continue to contest each other in primaries through the spring. The Democratic National Convention was scheduled for July, 2016 in Philadelphia.

REACTION & ACTION

THE CONTENTIOUS DEBATE SURROUNDING SYRIAN REFUGEES AND THEIR ACCEPTANCE IN THE US CONTINUED, WITH 31 STATES REJECTING THE IDEA.

In September, the Obama administration announced plans to increase the number of worldwide refugees accepted into the United States each year from 70,000 to 85,000 in 2016 and by another 15,000 in 2017. According to Secretary of State John Kerry, this step "is in keeping with the best tradition of America as a land of second chances and a beacon of hope." Other world leaders also announced aid for the estimated 4.5 million Syrians who have fled their homeland since the civil war there began in 2011; Canada, France and Germany revealed plans to resettle families who continue to flee Syria — where healthcare, education systems, and other infrastructure have been destroyed and the economy is shattered.

faces in the news

COALITION AGAINST ISIS Retired Marine General John Allen, who served as Special Envoy to Iran and Syria and led the fight against the terrorist group, stepped down in November, citing his wife's health issues.

EARLY DEPARTURE Speaker of the House John Boehner left his position in October, vacating to avoid continued in-party tensions.

NEW ATTORNEY GENERAL Loretta Lynch, the country's first African-American woman to serve in the role, was sworn in after five months of confirmation hearings. FEMALE RANGERS 1st Lt. Shaye Haver and Capt. Kristen Griest became the first women ever to successfully complete the U.S. Army's Ranger School — which puts a premium on physical strength and endurance.

XI JINPING VISITS After hosting Obama last year, the president of China traveled to Washington D.C. for continued negotiations. TESTING CAP Ruling that less than 2% of all learning time could be used for testing, new legislation attempted to "reduce over-testing" in schools.

FAR & AWAY

"WHEN TRAGEDY STRUCK THAT EVENING, OUR HEARTS BROKE, TOO."
-PRESIDENT OBAMA

November 13 was a devastating evening for the entire world as tragedy struck in Paris, France. A series of carefully orchestrated attacks took place in the City of Love and its Northern suburb, Saint-Denis. Suicide bombings and mass shootings in the streets, restaurants, a concert hall and the Stade de France ensued; a final count of 130 people were killed, and hundreds of others injured. French President François Hollande quickly declared a state of emergency and French government tightened border controls. The attacks subsequently heightened terror alerts worldwide, as militant group ISIS claimed responsibility, releasing propaganda videos threatening forthcoming attacks in other parts of the world. Thereafter the French military conducted a series of airstrikes on Syria. Nearly a week later, ringleader of the attacks, Abdelhamid Abaaoud was tracked down and killed in a dramatic raid. Support worldwide was extended and a stronger fight against ISIS was collectively at the forefront.

TWIN SUICIDE BOMBINGS

The deadliest attack on Turkish soil killed more than 90 individuals during a peace march in the capital of Ankara, nearly three weeks before national elections. The two bombs detonated seconds apart and were thought to target a rally of pro-Kurdish activists.

ISIS didn't claim responsibility but did remain a prime suspect. GREECE BAILOUT The country, whose debt crisis began in 2010, received their third bailout in five years. Prime Minister Alexis Tsipras resigned, called for new elections following the 86 billion euro bailout and, again, was sworn in as Greece's leader on September 21. PACIFIC TRADE

DEAL The Trans-Pacific Partnership involved 12 countries and aimed to strengthen economic ties, lessen tariffs, encourage growth and potentially create a single market like that of the EU.

POPE FRANCIS' HISTORIC VISIT The Argentine-born Pope journeyed to the United States for the first time in September. His stay lasted six days as he extended his love for the less fortunate and manifested his concern for helping the nation with their most pressing political, economic and social challenges. He even visited New York where a religious service was hosted at Ground Zero.

TRIO OF HEROES Three American men, Airman First Class Spencer Stone, Oregon National Guard Specialist Alek Skarlatos and college senior Anthony Sadler, aboard a train from Amsterdam to Paris, rushed and stopped a man who boarded with an AK-47 and a handgun. Two, including Stone, were shot but no one was killed, and a potential massacre was prevented thanks to the men's heroic acts.

PRINCESS CHARLOTTE

Kate Middleton and Prince William welcomed their second child and first daughter, Charlotte Elizabeth Diana on May 2, 2016. Charlotte automatically became fourth in line to the British throne behind Prince Charles, William and George of Cambridge.

GERMAN AIRBUS CRASH Germanwings A320 crashed into the French Alps in March killing all 150 passengers onboard. The investigation was ongoing, but it was clear that Captain Patrick Sondheimer left the cockpit for unknown reasons and co-pilot Andreas Lubitz did not respond to his knocks on the cockpit door as he tried to return; the plane's tragic and drastic descent began simultaneously. HAJJ STAMPEDE More than 2,100 people were trampled and killed in Saudi Arabia near a holy site during the hajj, an annual Islamic pilgrimage to Mecca, after two enormous waves of Muslim pilgrims collided. The 5-day religious journey is required of all Muslims at least once in their lifetime, and drew nearly 2 million pilgrims from more than 180 countries in 2015. METROJET FLIGHT 9268 Militant group ISIS released a statement claiming responsibility for the Russian plane that crashed over Egypt's Sinai Peninsula on October 31, killing 224 passengers on board. ISIS later published a photo in their online magazine Dabiq of the supposed bomb that caused the crash: a soda can pictured with two simple additional components that would have been the detonator and a switch.

QUEEN ELIZABETH II In September, Her Majesty became the longest-reigning monarch in 1,000 years of British history, surpassing her great, great grandmother Queen Victoria.

MALCOLM TURNBULL Australia's 29th elected Prime Minister defeated Tony Abbott and promised a 'thoroughly liberal government.'

MAURICIO MACRI Elected as Argentina's president in December, he was the first democratically-elected, non-radical or Peronist president since 1916.

JUSTIN TRUDEAU Canada elected this teacher their new Prime Minister. His father, Pierre Trudeau, filled the office twice.

EL CHAPO Joaquín Guzmán Loera, Mexico's most-wanted drug lord, was arrested after escaping for a second time through a tunnel in his cell of a maximum security prison. A United States extradition process was initiated.

TRENDS & TALK

THE YEAR'S "TABLE TALK" OFTEN TURNED TO THE FOOD INDUSTRY'S HIGHS AND LOWS.

UNCONVENTIONAL SALMON The first genetically modified animal for human consumption was approved in November. AquaBounty Technologies was behind the innovative salmon that they claimed would be just as safe as farm-raised fish, but would grow faster and in half the time. MICKEY D'S POSITIVITY The fast food chain gained publicity after launching (a very successful) all-day breakfast menu; momentum continued as they announced a campaign to benefit refugees, and were in the news yet again when a pay-it-forward chain of 250 customers began in a Florida drive-through during the holidays. NUMERO UNO At risk of demolition, Taco Bell's first 1962 store was moved 45 miles from its Downey, CA location to company headquarters in Irvine, CA. Meanwhile, the chain opened its first store in Tokyo, making it only the second location in Japan. NO MORE TRANS FAT In June, the FDA gave the food industry a deadline of three years to completely rid foods of trans fats, a leading cause of heart disease in the United States. #RAINCHECK Chipotle's reputation suffered after E. coli, Salmonella and Norovirus outbreaks were all linked to the restaurant in separate areas of the US. In an effort to regain trust, they held company-wide food safety meetings during lunch hours on February 8; shortly after, the chain offered free burritos to those who texted "RainCheck" to 888222 for the inconvenience.

SOCIAL MEDIA'S EVER-EXPANDING INFLUENCE
On average there were 400 million monthly Instagram users in 2015, and the social media app began leaving its mark in very permanent ways: as baby names. Amaro, Reyes, Hudson, Ludwig and Kelvin appeared more often, as well as Lux, which rose 75% on the list of popular boy names, compared to last year's list.
Filter names used for girls: Valencia, Willow and Juno.

THE DAB The latest dance craze (there's always one) was born within Atlanta's hip-hop culture, but really hit the mainstream when the Carolina Panther's quarterback Cam Newton introduced celebratory Dabs after touchdowns. The media caught Betty White, Mississippi State's Dak Prescott, and Victoria Azarenka all doing the Dab.

MOST POPULAR Taylor Swift's 65.9 million Instagram followers topped Kim Kardashian and Beyoncé by millions.

DISLIKE BUTTON Facebook announced a new "dislike" option in October without a release date. PERISCOPE Apple named the live-streaming video app "App of the Year." WORD OF THE YEAR Oxford gave the annual title to the crying-laughing emoji.

HOVERBOARDS The popular device often malfunctioned and was banned on streets and airplanes. TESLA The electric car company introduced a battery for efficient home energy.

APPLE The tech giants worked on an electric car with a target ship date of 2019. VOLKSWAGEN

The company was fined billions for cheating on emissions tests; shortly after, the VW CEO resigned. DRONE

DELIVERY Amazon, WalMart and Google considered drone delivery service, though federal regulations were a large obstacle.

DISCOVERY & IMPACT

MOTHER NATURE REMAINED UNFORESEEABLE AND SCIENCE, UNDENIABLY AWE-STRIKING.

Amidst all of Mother Nature's mood swings — floods, fires and earthquakes — she and the world of science made sure to leave their mark on the year. When scientists announced there was flowing water on Mars, it gave rise to a question that has long been considered: Does life exist beyond Earth? The watery flow was confirmed by dark streaks that patterned the surface during Martian spring and summer months. Whether or not life could be supported was impossible to determine, and would depend on how briny the water was and how cold the conditions were. Regardless, the discovery reopened doors for NASA researchers to further investigate potential life on Mars.

HURRICANE PATRICIA In October, a Category 5 hurricane near Mexico's Pacific coast was the strongest ever recorded in the Western Hemisphere, with maximum wind speeds of 215 mph.

SOUTH CAROLINA FLOODS The state dealt with more than two feet of rain in October, resulting in thousands of power outages, 17 deaths, several failed dams and an estimated $1 billion in damages.

EL NIÑO The second of two back-to-back warmest years recorded was due to an unusually strong El Niño in the Pacific Ocean and ongoing global warming.

CALIFORNIA BLAZES In September, more than 1,000 homes were destroyed from two massive and relentless wildfires in Northern California.

DENALI President Obama renamed Mount McKinley Denali in an effort to keep his 2008 campaign promise of improving relations between the government and existing Native American tribes.

the unpredictable

POWERFUL BLOWS FROM NATURE Earthquakes shook areas of Afghanistan/Pakistan in October, Nepal in late April and Chile in September. The 7.5 magnitude quake in Pakistan led to nearly 400 deaths when it originated more than 200 kilometers below Earth's surface. The 7.8 magnitude tremor devastated Nepal with more than 8,800 deaths and 3.5 million citizens in need of assistance. Chile's 8.3 magnitude quake was nearly five times stronger than Nepal's, but caused an estimated 10 deaths, one million evacuations, tsunami alerts and hundreds of aftershocks.

NEW HUMAN LINEAGE

Homo naledi, a previously unidentified species of human lineage, was found in the Rising Star Cave in South Africa in September and was part of one of the largest samples of hominin species ever found.

PEACE PRIZE The prestigious award in medicine went to three: William Campbell and Satoshi Omura for their efforts against ringworm and Youyou Tu, for her research in creating a drug that would effectively tackle malaria. #EMPTYTHETANKS

With an existing badly damaged reputation, SeaWorld announced that it would end its theatrical orca shows in San Diego by the end of 2016. To make matters worse, an 18-year-old orca died of a fungal infection at the San Antonio location in December.

CECIL THE LION A beloved male lion living in the Hwange Game Reserve in Zimbabwe was shot and killed for sport by Walter Palmer, an American dentist and big game hunter. The big cat was lured out of the sanctuary when killed, and worldwide protests followed. However, Zimbabwe decided not to press charges.

CINEMATIC & ENGAGING

BIG-NAME STARS AND SILVER SCREEN HITS MADE HEADLINES AND BROKE RECORDS.

MINIONS The Despicable Me characters starred in their very own movie which raked in $336 million at the box office.

STAR WARS: THE FORCE AWAKENS The seventh edition of the legendary series broke many records and became the highest grossing domestic film of all time with $917 million.

JURASSIC WORLD The fourth Jurassic film became the second highest grossing film of the year with $652 million in box office revenue. FURIOUS 7 Fans flocked to theaters to bid a final farewell to the late Paul Walker; the film earned $350 million. THE AVENGERS: AGE OF ULTRON The sequel to the 2012 Avengers film was the third highest grossing film of the year with $459 million at the box office.

CHANGE & MORE

A SHIFT IN STANDARD NORMS MADE CONVERSATION STARTERS.

PLUTO Scientists created a false color image to show Pluto's distinctive regions of composition and texture. ALIEN LIFE Australian scientists discovered three planets around a red dwarf star; one sits far enough away to not get too hot, yet close enough for water to remain a liquid, suggesting that it could support life. CLOCK TROUBLE Ahmed Mohamed, 14, was handcuffed by police at his Dallas, TX area high school after building a homemade clock that was mistaken for a fake bomb. PLASTIC BRICKS In an attempt to find an alternative to their petroleum-based plastics by 2030, LEGO spent $150 million on a new Sustainable Materials Center.

MISS UNIVERSE FLOP

Emcee Steve Harvey mistakenly announced Miss Colombia as the winner, but Miss Phillipines actually won. ADULT COLORING BOOKS Intricately designed coloring books became a trend for adults for their ability to relieve stress. SMOKING BAN

Hawaii became the first state to ban smoking to those under 21. CALL ME CAITLYN The former Bruce Jenner introduced herself to the world after her transformation.

NATIONAL SPELLING BEE

The contest ended in a tie for the second year in a row; Gokul Venkatachalam and Vanya Shivashankar shared the title. #CUPGATE Starbucks stirred up controversy when they revealed a minimalist red cup during the holidays. Many took to social media, outraged that it was a stunt against Christmas.

PENGUIN SWEATERS

When asked, Australia's oldest man, Alfred Date, age 109, joined the cause "Knits for Nature" to knit tiny sweaters for penguins who fell victim to oil spills.

CHUCK TAYLOR ALL STAR II

Converse updated their iconic sneaker for the first time since 1917.
